The C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston is at the heart of the city's vibrant, sophisticated, international business universe. Bauer College is powered by the energy of Houston.

Top ranked programs in entrepreneurship and energy reflect the innovative flair of this global energy capital.

The accounting and sales excellence programs show how close ties to Houston's business community enrich programs and create job opportunities for students.

Bauer's Global Energy Management Institute is a training ground for energy leaders in Houston and the world.

The college is also known for the hands-on experiences for students and the energy of its faculty, which ranks among top colleges for its output and insight of its research.

Over the past 10 years, Bauer has grown in size and the breadth of its programs. Bauer recently expanded with Michael J. Cerno Hall, which houses added classrooms and the Rockwell Career Center. With more senior executives earning degrees from Bauer than any other school in Houston, Bauer alumni lead the real world of business.

Bauer is Houston's most comprehensive business school and fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB). Bauer offers BBA, MBA, M.S., MPA and Ph.D. programs as well special certificates at the graduate level in energy, real estate, entrepreneurship, leadership, marketing and supply chain.

BBA's are offered in Accounting, Finance, Management, Marketing, Entrepreneurship, Management Information Systems and Supply Chain Management.

Bauer has a strong reputation and is one of the most diverse business schools in the nation. The school boasts many top rankings, including the Wolff Center for Entrepreneurship's #1 ranking in the U.S. (Best 2010 Entrepreneurial Colleges, The Princeton Review); a part-time MBA program ranked in the top 30 in the nation among 127 schools of business at public universities (U.S. News & World Report); marketing and finance faculty ranked in the top 10 in the U.S.; and an accountancy & taxation program that is one of only 17 world-wide designated a Partner of the Institute of Internal Auditors.
