Via: The Way of the Disciple

Via is a groundbreaking focus for committed Christians willing to examine their faith walk and challenge themselves to more fully answer Christ's call to his disciples. Through the Via platform we are able to examine ourselves in the core areas of Christian life: worshipping, growing, witnessing and giving.

Worshipping Opportunities

- Traditional: Sundays 8:15, 9:30 and 11 AM
- the journey: Sundays 11:01 AM at The Well
- Midweek Worship: Wednesdays 6:30 PM in Friendship Court
- Lunch & Worship: Thursdays 11:30 AM at The Gate

Growing Opportunities

- Find Sunday School for all ages and interests.
- Spiritual Formation offers many classes and discussion groups.
- Take special courses focusing on Bible reading, parenting, justice issues and more
- Renew and reflect at retreats, on a pilgrimage or walking the Labyrinth.

Witnessing Opportunities

- Make lunches for Soupmobile and help feed the needy year round.
- Become a mentor for a local elementary student.
- Help dig a well in Guatemala, build a hospital in Kenya.
- Take the gospel story to our neighbors in music and compassion.

Giving Opportunities

- Support a missionary or scholarship for a student on retreat.
- Donate to place Bibles in the hands of God's people.
- Give to special disaster-relief programs.
- Support your local church in its ongoing mission.
