Long known as one of the finest hotels in Houston, The Houstonian Hotel, Club & Spa sits on an 18-acre wooded oasis in the heart of the city. The classic hotel combines first-class comfort with elegance, personalized service and an array of satisfying amenities, such as access to the Redstone Golf Club and transportation to the dynamic Galleria shopping district.

Deluxe guestrooms at The Houstonian feature floor-to-ceiling windows with wooded views, 42-inch LCD televisions, premium bedding and high-end residential-style furnishings. The Concierge Level offers key-access privacy while the luxurious Executive, Capitol and Presidential Suites feature expanded living space in a comfortable setting.

Dining options at The Houstonian range from casual fare at Center Court Café to the more elegant Olivette, the hotel's premier restaurant, and the Manor House. Warm and inviting, Olivette offers modern American cuisine with Mediterranean accents from a lively display kitchen while the Manor House features American regional cuisine, beautiful views and a refined atmosphere in a more intimate setting.

The Houstonian's event facilities offer impeccable service and amenities. With 32,000 square feet of dedicated space, the hotel offers technically advanced equipment for professional meetings as well as warmth and elegance to suit any size social event. From weddings and galas in the Grande Ballroom to weeklong conferences in the more intimate boardrooms to casual poolside festivities, The Houstonian can host a variety of functions, indoors or out.

Relax at the 17,000-square-foot, two-story Mediterranean-style Trellis spa with exquisite treatments in a tranquil, natural-garden setting. Its 21 treatment rooms, including one for couples, offer body treatments, facials and tanning as well as hairstyling, manicures, pedicures and more for the ultimate guest experience.

Hotel guests will enjoy complimentary access to the 175,000-square-foot private health club, which features 250 fitness machines, 200 land and water group classes a week, 37 personal trainers, two dietitians, a rock wall, indoor and outdoor tennis courts, three outdoor heated pools, a full-size basketball court, yoga, Pilates, martial arts, boxing and more.

There truly is nothing like The Houstonian. ■
