

Located in the heart of Houston's Midtown/Montrose area, Artisans Restaurant offers cuisine and savoir-faire with innovative and eclectic French seafood and steaks, focusing on creative dishes that use market-fresh gastronomic products and original combinations of spices and seasonings. Classic yet innovative, the Artisans menu is designed by the culinary staff under the leadership of Chef Jacques Fox, who delivers unparalleled French cuisine championing the philosophy that "dining is a passionate art form."

Chef Jacques Fox

Since moving to the United States, Chef Jacques Fox has worked at several notable properties including the following:

- The four-star Hotel Bentley in Louisiana
- The multimillion-dollar Moody Gardens
- The Wentletrap Restaurant in the five-star Tremont House Hotel in Galveston
- Conrad N. Hilton College of Hotel and Restaurant Management at the University of Houston and 86-room University of Houston Hilton Hotel and Conference Center (executive chef, head of food-and-beverage program)
- Briar Club in the posh River Oaks neighborhood (executive chef)
- The world-class Miramont Country Club in Bryan, Texas (executive chef)
- Briarcrest Country Club (executive Chef and food-and-beverage director)

Private Dining

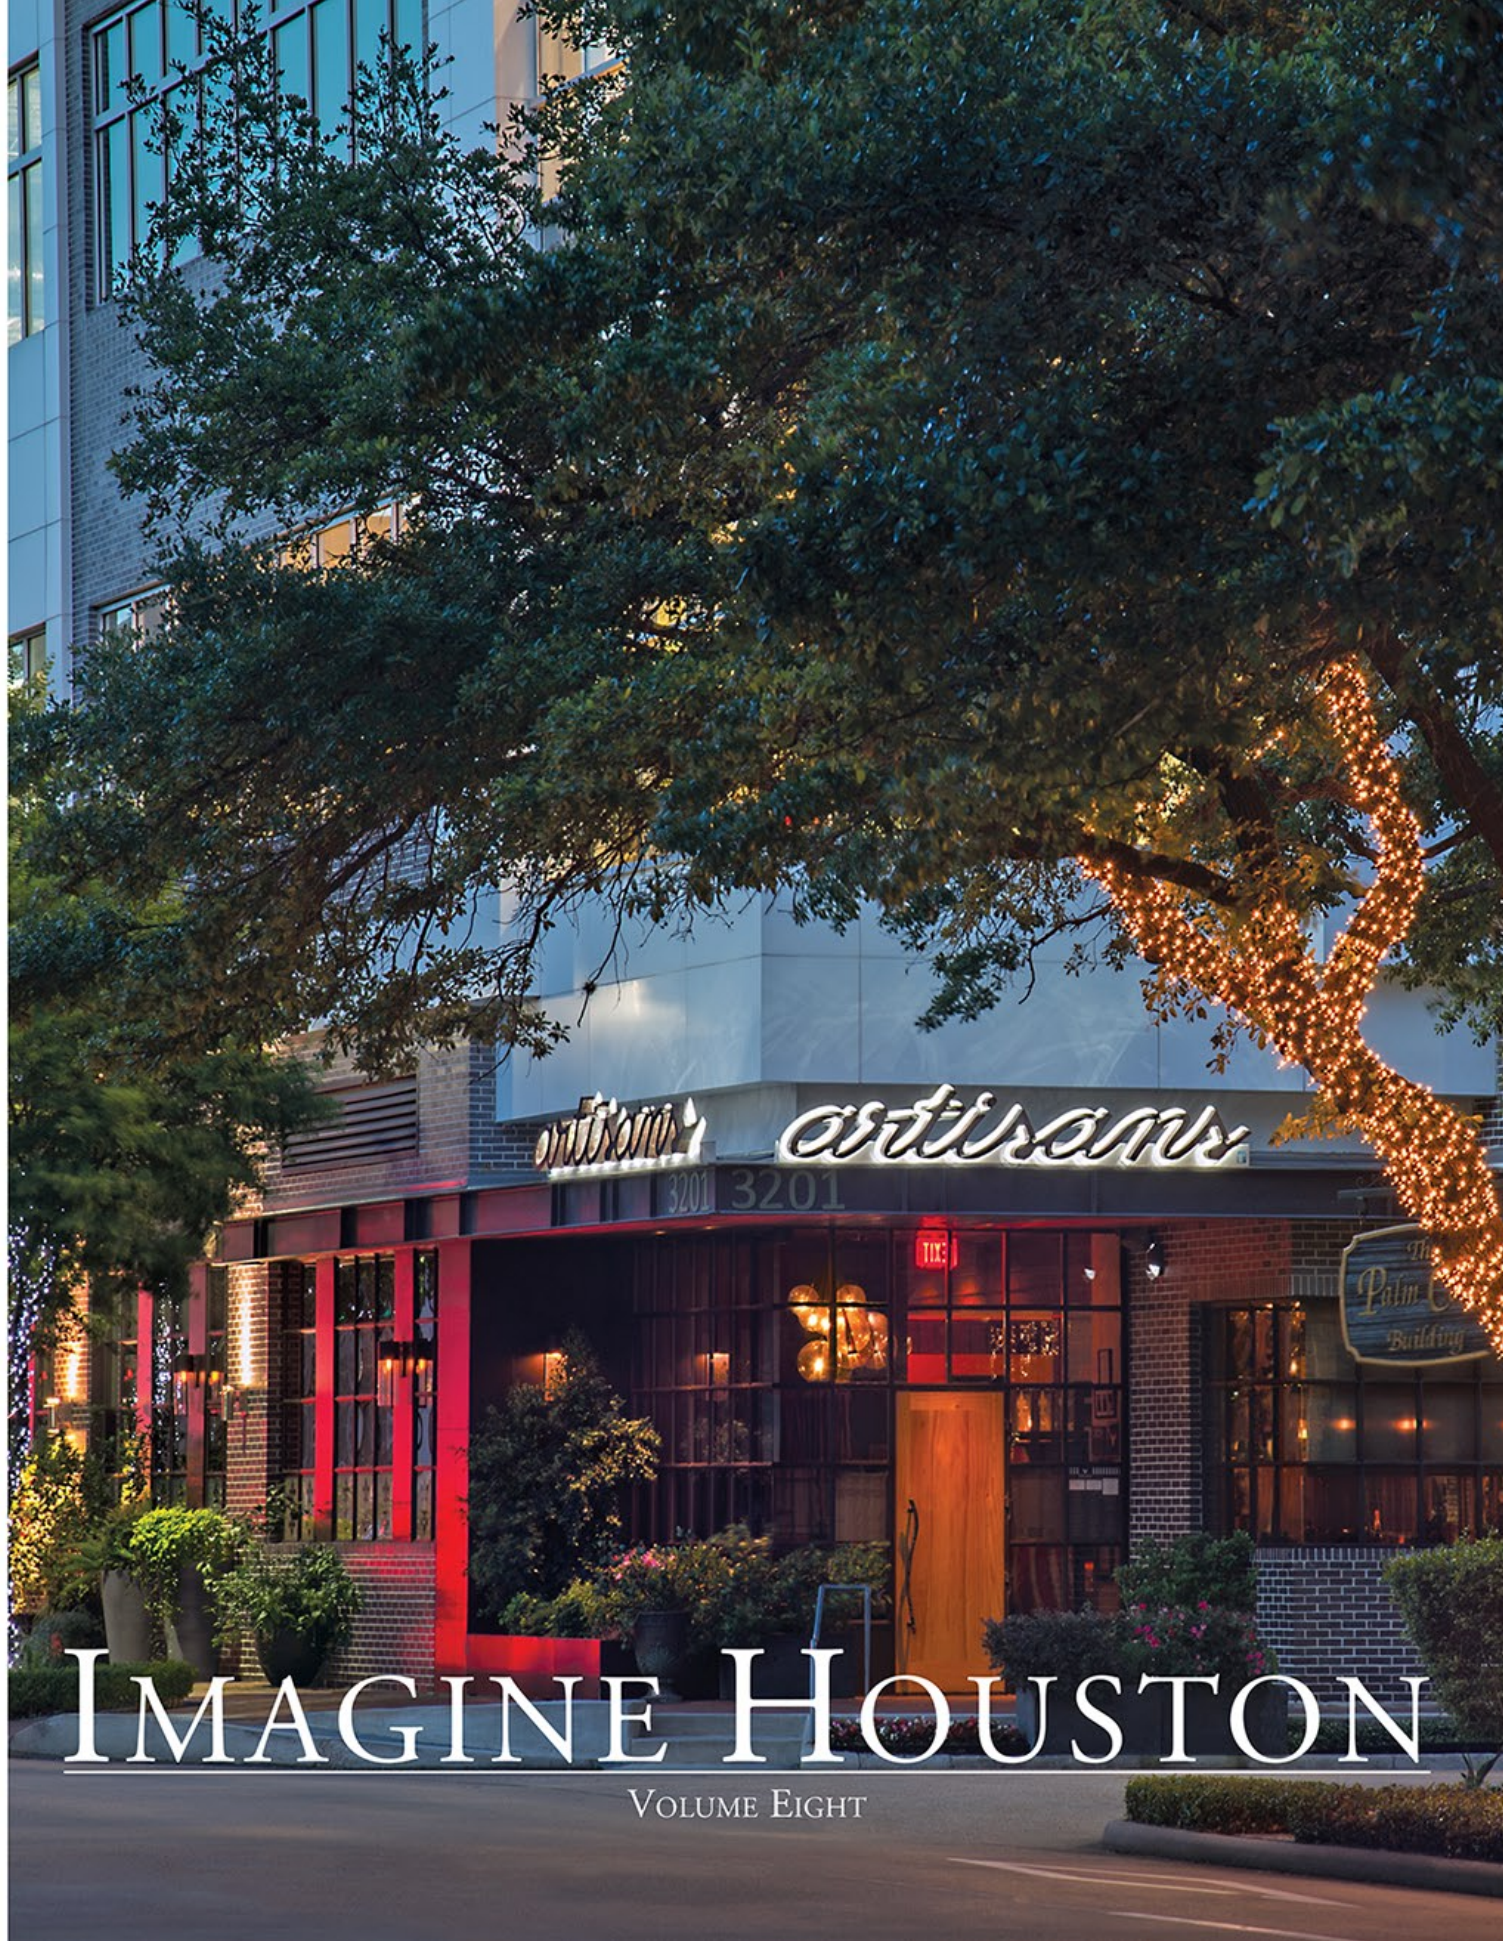

The elegant ambiance of Artisans Restaurant offers a distinctive dining experience for couples, small groups, business lunches and events for all occasions. With its unique décor and setup, the restaurant is designed to create memorable experiences for groups of all sizes.

- Main Dining Room: Offering an intimate 28-seat Table du Chef with front-row dining atmosphere, mezzanine-level tables and more intimate Fleurs-de-Lis banquettes, small groups can enjoy elegant dining.
- Medieval Rooms I and II: Each seating up to 12 (or 24 combined), the Medieval Rooms evoke the intimacy of a grand estate's inner sanctum with wood-paneled walls, low ceilings, over-sized farmhouse tables and the soft chandelier glow. Plus, a one-way window provides an up-close view of the kitchen.
- La Veranda: Newly remodeled, La Veranda seats up to 14 and features a custom-fitted wall wine rack, stained concrete floors and cavernous ceilings contributing to old-world flavor and ambiance.
- Le Salon: For groups up to 80, Le Salon features innovative, moveable wall paneling that resizes the room for an event. Plus, its separate kitchen lets guests separate from the regular diners with first-class service.
