

Second Family members love to serve the local community, and annual events such as Angels of Light, Serve Houston and Second Helping, make a difference through acts of service that include home repairs, yardwork, stocking local food pantries, or providing gifts and groceries to families in need during the Christmas season.

Second Baptist hosts periodic conferences that feature some of the nation's leading authorities on marriage and the family, as well as outstanding events specifically for men and women. In January 2015 Second will host the If My People Conference, with guest speakers Dr. Ben Carson, Jay Sekulow, Congressman Trey Gowdy and Judge Ken Starr.

Christmas and Easter are special times on Second Baptist's five campuses. The Really, Really Big Christmas Show has become a Houston favorite with original songs, aerial feats, colorful costumes and a thrilling action-packed adventure sure to please the entire family. The Christmas Eve Candlelight services feature carols, great choral music, a children's nativity and the lighting of thousands of candles for a meaningful family worship experience. At Easter, the Passion Week Experience provides a self-guided tour through Stations of the Cross with guidebooks available in English, Spanish and Vietnamese.

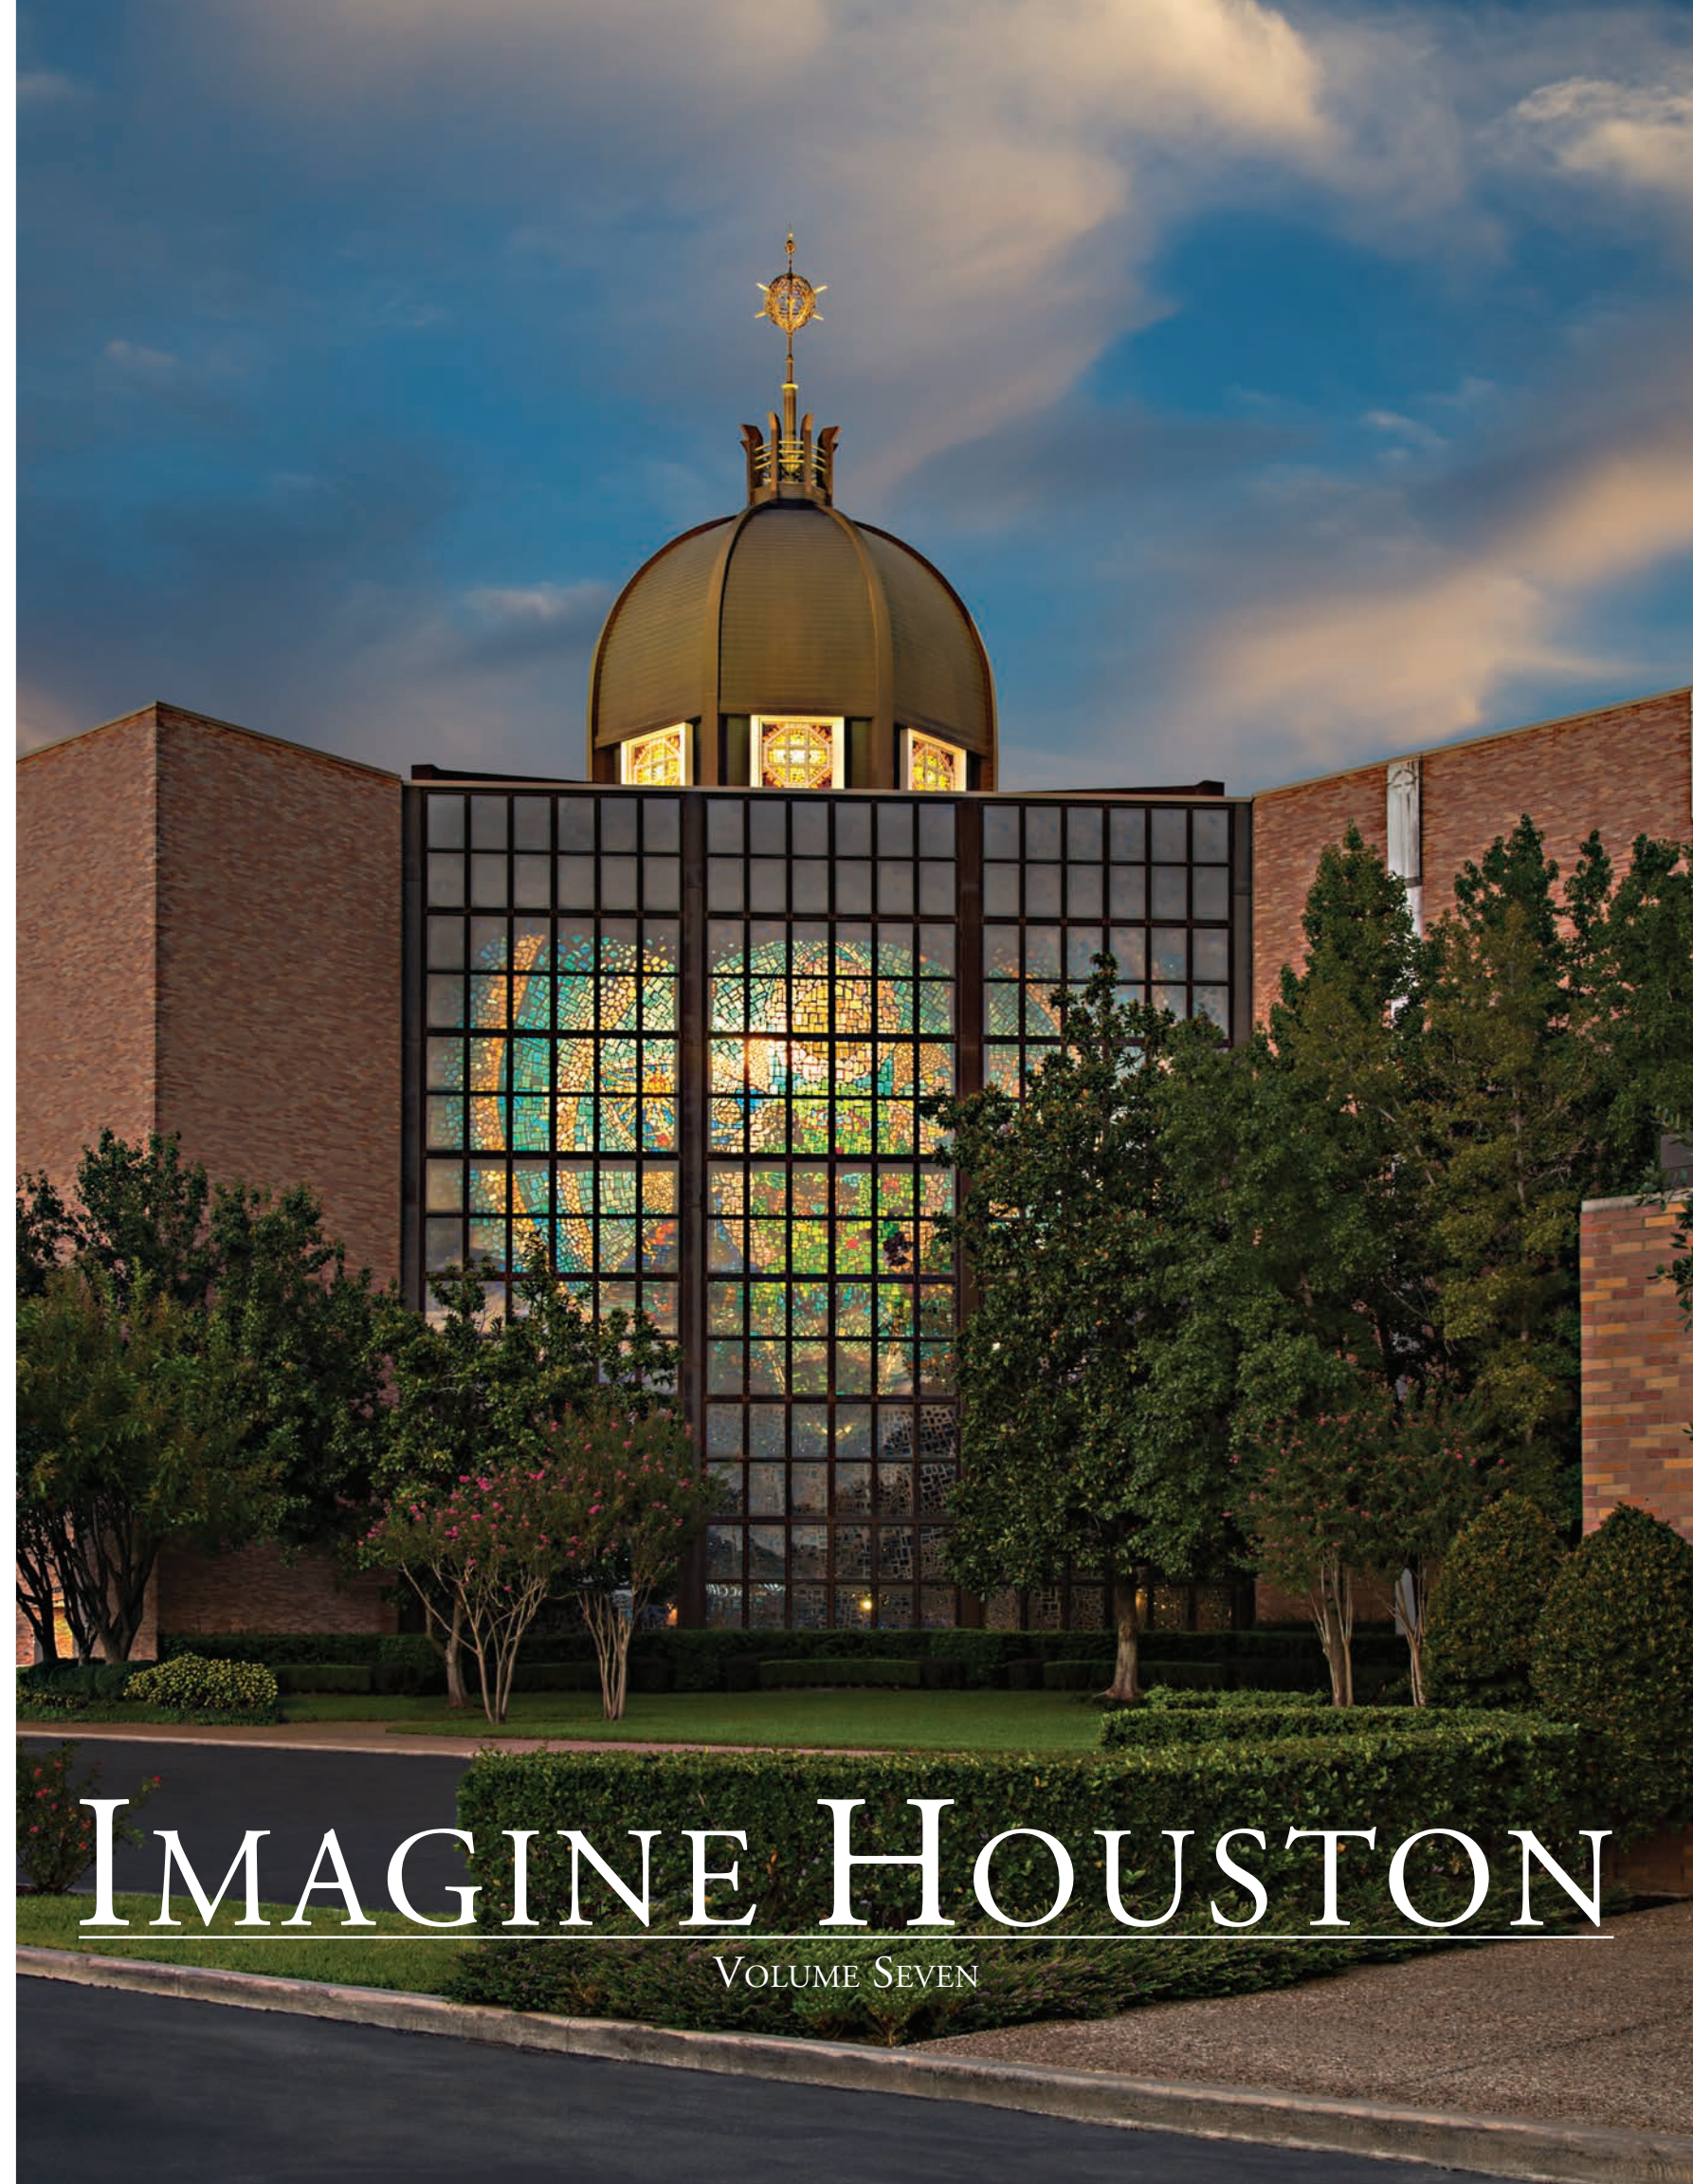

The Second Family is committed to making every second count in everything we do to reach people, help them grow and equip them to realize their full potential in Christ. Members welcome opportunities to use their time and talents in serving the local community and celebrating the difference a relationship with Jesus Christ can make.
