When planning a short- or long-term stay in Houston, Stafford Housing offers premium temporary housing facilities with distinct class and unmatched quality. Serving the hospitality industry with flair, Stafford Housing even rivals the services, locations and scenic views of other leading local brands.

Synonymous with prestige and luxury living for the corporate set looking for secure yet comfortable modern retreats, Stafford Housing offers premium, furnished, state-of-the-art apartments with chic, professionally styled and spacious interiors. Operating mainly in Houston, Stafford's vision is to maintain the best hospitality presence in the region and throughout the United States.

Stafford Housing keeps changing by brainstorming behind the scenes to appeal to everyone it serves, including medical professionals and patients, and thus has developed a penchant for accommodating many different industries, from the oil and gas and retail sectors to consultants and university professors, all of which have diverse tastes and accommodation needs. Such diversity needs more than a single, monotonous commercial platform. Stafford's diverse approach allows innovation, personalization and true accommodation. Stafford's continual improvement of its standards, work ethic, designer profiles and workforce motivation breed service above and beyond industry standards and guest loyalty.

Stafford's signature, world-class furnished apartments are selected carefully by strict criteria, including location, access, amenities, service, comfort and value. Stafford's interiors feature the finest décor and furnishings crafted for the ultimate living experience. From linens to the lounge, Stafford Housing fashions every adornment with sophistication, chic comfort and world-class style.

Recognized for its high-end, modern corporate housing with an aristocratic touch, Stafford Housing works with the corporate elite to develop and offer a refined style perfect for executives who desire the modern urban corporate lifestyle. Residents enjoy access to amenities, such as Internet connectivity, 24-hour personalized services, business centers, resort-style pools and workout facilities.

Stafford Housing also offers premium vacation rentals for those seeking comfort and enjoyment with high-end luxury and style. Stafford provides all-star comfort with self-contained, furnished apartments at affordable prices for every mood and purpose, whether a weeklong vacation or a short weekend trip. ■
