Fun and flair is always on the menu at Tango & Malbec in the Galleria area. A culinary collaboration from Argentina and Uruguay, the name comes from Tango, the famous dance, and the grape used in Argentina's iconic Malbec wine.

The upscale space balances rustic charm with a modern feel. Juicy cuts of grass-fed meats from around the world are cooked on the only custom wood-fire parrilla in Houston over flavor-filled pecan and mesquite to perfectly prepare marvelous dishes and amazing experiences to complement the most extensive South American wine list in the city.

VOLUME SEVEN

For private dinners or group events, the passion and energy of Tango & Malbec comes from its warm, sultry and inviting interior as much as the full-bodied wines and succulent meats delivered from an open-kitchen wood-fire grill in the style of the Rio de la Plata region of South America.
